11. Department Head:
 - a. County Manager, Thomas Lizotte
 - The manager shared a new automobile graveyard/junkyard permit application form with Commissioners for their review and approval. The form will be used to begin the process of licensing the auto graveyard located on the Ladd family property in Barnard Twp.
 - Piscataquis County has provided the requested data, including an updated vehicle inventory, to the MCCA Risk Pool in order to begin renewal of insurance liability coverage for FY 2018.
 - Administration continues to compile cost estimates on damage sustained due to the lightning strike that occurred on July 20. A property loss report will be submitted to the MCCA Risk Pool for reimbursement of damages.

- The County Manager and Finance Office will be providing budget work sheets to all County departments during the week of Aug. 14, kicking off the process of developing the FY 2018 budget. An initial draft should be available by Sept. 11, and departmental budget review meetings will begin at that time. The Budget Advisory Committee's first meeting is tentatively scheduled for Oct. 5.
 - The first county tax payment was received on Aug. 4 from the Town of Medford.
 - Charles Pray, a former State Senate president from Millinocket, has been hired by the Maine County Commissioners Association as the new Executive Director. Pray served on an interim basis as the MCCA's legislative lobbyist during this year's session of the Legislature.
 - The recently concluded session of the Maine Legislature included jail funding of $12.2 million for the biennium, with an additional $3 million for year one of the biennium. Language was included requiring the Dept. of Corrections to report back to the Criminal Justice and Public Safety with recommendations on funding jails beyond the next fiscal year. The DOC has reached out for a working group from the MCCA to assist with funding recommendations.
